

European Society for Organ Transplantation

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR ESOT NON-FINANCIAL ENDORSEMENT OF EVENTS ORGANIZED BY THIRD PARTIES

- 1) ESOT will grant its support by means of non-financial endorsement, to initiatives organized by third parties, in recognition of their overall educational value in the field of transplantation.
- 2) If the endorsement is granted, the third party will be allowed to use the ESOT logo in all its printed/posted materials, by using the sentence "ESOT's Endorsed Event". The logo will be provided by the ESOT. The third party must send any draft in which the ESOT logo will appear to the ESOT Office for final approval BEFORE this is printed and/or put online.
- 3) ESOT will also post the information related to the event on the News section of its website. Third parties are responsible to provide the ESOT Office with the logo and webpage of the event.
- 4) In exchange the third party will advertise ESOT activities by means of brochures, videos, web links and, when possible, an advertising page in the Final Program, of the endorsed event.
- 5) The ESOT Secretary will be in charge of granting the endorsement.
- 6) Granting the endorsement will be based on the scientific program, which must be submitted at the time of application. Topics treated by the event must be related to Transplantation or relevant to Transplant Professionals.
- 7) Commercial and/or Industry standalone events cannot apply for endorsement.
